NEWS OF THE MORNING.

We have 14 ballots taken at the Pro-Slavery Convention at Cincinnati yesterday. They reached us before 9 o'clock, and the telegraph perversely gave out soon after. It seems quite doubtful whether Mr. Buchanan can muster the 168 votes necessary to nominate him, and the probabilities are in favor of some new man.

Despatches from St. Louis last evening show that the border ruffians are busy in clearing Kansas of the Free State settlers.

Our Kansas correspondent has a very interesting letter. He gives a fuller account than we have hitherto had of the rescue of a settler from hanging by a party of Free State men, and the death of several of the hanging party, which has been lied about so egregiously by the pro-slavery papers.

We give several notices descriptive of the great meeting in New York.

It will be seen that measures have been taken for a grand display in our city on the 4th of July.

The Republican State Convention.

The Republican State Convention which met at Madison on Wednesday last, was one of the best attended, most harmonious and spirited political gatherings that we have ever seen in Wisconsin. Called together at a very busy season of the year, and for no other purpose than to appoint Delegates to the Philadelphia National Convention, the attendance was nevertheless large, and almost every Assembly District in the State fully, or partially represented. Judge JACKSON, of Iowa County, presided over the deliberations of the Committee, discharging his duties ably and gracefully. The three Vice-Presidents, Judge HOWE, of Brown, Judge SPOONER, of Walworth, and Mr. CLEMONS of Grant, represented respectively the three elements, Whig, Free Soil and Democratic, which are compounded together in the Republican Party. The platform, introduced by Judge POTTER, was broad, strong and comprehensive. The Delegates elect to the National Convention are men who will faithfully reflect the popular sentiment of the State. They are:

From the First Congressional District.—RUFUS KING, C. S. CHASE, W. D. BACON, THOS. NEWELL, J. F. POTTER.

From the Second District.—L. P. HARVEY, W. D. MCINDOE, N. W. DEAN, MILTON BARLOW, C. KUNTZ.

From the Third District.—M. M. DAVIS, DANIEL JONES, GEO. S. GRAVES, E. S. PHILLIPS, T. O. HOWE.

The Convention indicated its presidential preference by the adoption of a resolution, complimentary to that glorious trio in the U. S. Senate, SEWARD, CHASE and SUMNER, and declaring that the nomination of any of the three would command the approval and undivided support of the Republicans of Wisconsin.

The following gentlemen were appointed State Central Committee:

L. P. HARVEY, of Rock, Chairman.
N. W. DEAN, Ed. ISELEY, THOS. REYNOLDS, } of Dane.
L. H. CARY, of Sheboygan.
J. C. COVEE, of Grant.
K. J. FLEISCHER, of Rock.
BYRON PAINE, of Milwaukee.
CHARLES ROESER, of Manitowoc.

The Convention also made choice of EDWARD D. HOLTON, of Milwaukee, and TIMOTHY O. HOWE, of Green Bay, as electors at large, leaving it to the Congressional Conventions hereafter to designate the electors for their respective Districts.

These several appointments were made and the resolutions adopted, by unanimous votes.—Indeed, from first to last, every act and vote of the Convention indicated the most entire and gratifying harmony, and a determination to forgo and forget all personal claims and past differences, and to rally, as one man, under the Banner of Freedom. Such a spirit, we confidently hope, will also animate the approaching National Convention at Philadelphia, and conduct its deliberations to a speedy and fortunate issue.—And then, with their banner spread to the breeze and their gallant leaders at their head, the sons of Liberty will march forth joyously and confidently to meet the minions of Slavery, appealing to the God of Battles for the righteousness of their cause.

We shall publish the official record of the proceedings of the State Convention in our next.

Another Doughface Overboard.

The election of JAMES DIXON to the U. S. Senate by the Legislature of Connecticut, in place of that subservient tool of the Slave Power, ISAAC TOUCEY, is another satisfactory indication of progress in the right direction. Thus gradually the political complexion of the Senate is improved for the better. The News, which is unhappy over the result, sheds a profusion of crocodile tears at the thought that the Republicans should have elected a Know-Nothing, in the person of Mr. DIXON, to the Senate. Let the News dry its eyes. We have the best authority for saying that Mr. DIXON is not and never was a member of the K. N. organization. We know him, moreover, to be a true man; faithful to the rights of the North and the interests of Humanity and Freedom.

The Cincinnati Convention.

The Cincinnati Times of Tuesday afternoon brings us full details of the first two days proceedings in the Cincinnati Convention. We notice that NELSON DEWEY is the Vice President and A. T. GRAY, the Secretary, from this State. The Times represents the outside pressure as tremendous in favor of BUCHANAN, and the chances, at first largely in his favor, as diminishing rapidly under the skilful manipulations of the Pierce-Douglas operators. South Carolina (BROOKS & Co.) had resolved to vote every time as a unit, for PIERCE, and not to swerve until New Hampshire did. Kentucky and Mississippi are also unanimous for Pierce. Indeed, the South owe it to common decency to stand by Pierce, thro' thick and thin, as he has stood by them.

The Wisconsin Land Grant.

The President has signed the bill granting two millions of acres of Public Lands to Wisconsin in aid of the Rail Roads from Madison, or Columbus, via Portage, to St. Croix and thence to Lake Superior, and from Fond du Lac northerly to the northern boundary of our State. It is also said that orders have been issued to close all the Land Offices in this State, until the Rail Road Companies have selected theirs. This will be a sore disappointment to many a newly arrived immigrant from the old or new world.

KANSAS MEETING AT MADISON.—There was a great gathering in the Capitol Park, at Madison, on Wednesday evening, to hear Col. LANE, of Kansas. He spoke for two hours, with telling effect, of the wrongs and outrages heaped upon the people of Kansas by the mercenaries of Slavery and their Federal Abettors, there and elsewhere. Col. LANE was to speak again at Janesville last evening. He is doing a great work, and should be warmly welcomed by the friends of Freedom everywhere.

SENATOR DURKEE.—We regret to learn from the Kenosha Telegraph that our Senator, Mr. DURKEE, has been quite unwell and has been detained from his seat and duties in the Senate.—At the last accounts, however, he was much better, and, it is hoped, will soon be enabled to resume his post.

From Our Kansas Correspondent.

Late and Important.

LAWRENCE, KANSAS, May 27.

Messrs. Editors:

The war which has been inaugurated in Kansas by the Administration, is producing its legitimate and most deplorable results. It is scarcely in human nature, in unregenerate human nature, to endure, as we in this Territory have endured, of tyranny and oppression, a thousand fold worse than that which is universally considered ample justification for the American Revolution, endured for the sake of peace, because the oppression came from the political head, and from our brothers, of this noble Republic, which we all love; one tithe of which, from any foreign power, would have called forth the execration, aye, the blood and treasure of the whole country—it is scarcely in human nature to endure to such length without, at least, a spasmodic effort of retaliation and revenge. The Free State men of Kansas, against whom is challenged the production of one single clear, or even probable, case of outrage against human rights and law and order, notwithstanding their provocations; who have stood together, shoulder to shoulder, in the successful effort to suffer with patience, hoping that finally the dawn would break, and the morning sun of our glorious day would arise in mildness and peace from out the darkness which surrounded us—are now in confusion and tumult. The patient camel's back was finally broken by the last straw laid upon it; so with the patience of the Free State men of Kansas. Not that the parallel holds good as to the last weight imposed, for upon us came down, with immense weight and crushing force, an avalanche of Herculean evils—the disarming of the people, the destruction of the press, the murder and robbery of individuals and communities, the execution of law upon the finding of indictments by Grand Juries, without trial or conviction, the announcement to us that although we might be permitted to enjoy our own opinions, (because they could not prevent it,) we must not express them or exercise the right of suffrage—all this, and more, like the last pound of the camel's load, has "crushed out" the last remains of patience and endurance in many of our people, and now has come the desperation of the stag at bay.

And although thousands of our friends in the Free States will, with me, lament and condemn the course which some of our people have determined upon—have felt themselves driven to by oppressors—and which is manifested in the developments of to-day and recently, which I will relate, still it is hoped that in judging them, the monster evil causes will be borne in mind, and that the judgment will be tempered accordingly. I am aware that there are those who will approve any extreme measures that may be adopted after the unparalleled outrages which have been recently committed in this town, and who, even now, are disposed to censure the people for having submitted to the extent they have, and who can see nothing but cowardice in their thus humbling themselves; but there is a heroism loftier than physical courage, and a victory is often won more complete, more enduring, more elevating, than that upon the battle field. Patience often conquers when impetuosity and ill-advised, unreasoning impulse will dash its head against the rocks and spill its own brains.

A rumor came into town a few days since, since confirmed, that a portion of the Free State men in the Southern part of the Territory, are forming themselves into companies and parties, which they compare to Marion's and for similar purposes. They organize and unite to protect themselves and their property from these ruthless invaders; and in doing so, it is said, they intend driving them, and all who aid and abet them, from the Territory, or perish in the attempt. Considering the resident pro-Slavery men as not only culpable but as able to do them more harm than others, and as having been the instruments through which, and by means of which, their persons and property have been pointed out to the invaders, and they have consequently been murdered, arrested, robbed and outraged in almost every conceivable manner—they intend to make them furnish the means of subsistence, locomotion, &c. Guerilla Bands are forming, and the watchword is death or extermination, for Freedom and Slavery cannot exist together. It is either the exclusion of negro slavery or the imposition of white slavery. In this movement they but follow the example set them by our invaders, who have long since declared for the extermination of all Free State men, and who have stolen, plundered and slain.

This movement must not be confounded with the one on foot for a complete organization of the Free State party in the territory into companies for protection and defence only. It is thought best to pursue, as far as possible, the quiet, subsidisive policy thus far pursued, and which has made our cause so strong, and which, if persevered in, will certainly ensure our final success.

There is said to be a party or company of the kind first named—perhaps the word "guerilla" expresses too much—but for want of a better that is used—formed in the vicinity of Ossawattomie and Pottawattomie, and another on the Wakarusa, with whom some of our young bloods are connected. Having had their houses killed by the other party, they mount themselves by taking theirs in return, not always being careful to take from those who have taken from them. But I do not want to apologize for them, although many of them have been made entirely destitute by these means, and are driven to desperation.—We want still to be strictly defensive, not aggressive, and the great body of our people, and the wisest amongst us, disclaim all connection with, or responsibility for this movement.

A horrible affair occurred in the vicinity of Ossawattamie last Saturday. I will give you the Free State version of the affair, as it has been given by different persons. There is a pro-slavery neighborhood between Ossawattamie and Pottawattamie, about forty miles south of this place, in the midst of which has resided a Free State man, whose life had been repeatedly threatened by the other party. After the destruction in Lawrence, the Wakarusa bridge was threatened with destruction by the sheriff and his posse. in consequence of an indictment against it as a nuisance, because the Deputy-Sheriff was charged toll. A company was formed to protect it. A company had been previously formed at the place south, above named, under Capt. Brown, who will be recollected as the man who came to Lawrence in December with so large a family of boys, all ready to enlist for the war. On Saturday last this company started to come to Wakarusa to relieve the company there, as I understand it, when, taking occasion of their absence, the pro-slavery men took this Free State man whom they had threatened so long, and proceeded to hang him. There were five of them, among whom was Judge Wilkeson, a member of the bogus Legislature. They took their prisoner to a tree, put a rope around his neck, threw it over a limb, and were on the point of stringing him up, when they were attacked by a party of Free State men and all shot on the spot. A messenger came into town to-day from Capt. Brown with the news, and a request for Col. Topliff to go there immediately, but the Col. has gone to Topeka. Capt. Brown saw the bodies after they were shot. Whether or not it was his company who returned and saved the man's life, I did not learn.

The account from the opposite party, as reported to Shannon at Locompton to-day, was, that a company of Free State men, some say 150, others 20 or 30, entered the houses of these five men in the night, took them out and literally cut and hacked them to pieces, cutting off their ears and their faces, and mangling them in the most shocking manner. The account is its own refutation. Besides the greater reliability of Free State reports, the transaction is in no wise characteristic of the men or the party. The past is a criterion by which to judge of the present and future.

Marshal Donelson left Locompton to-day for Leavenworth, it is said for protection. Governor Shannon leaves to-morrow. He told Mrs. G. W. Brown to-day that his daughter is sick in Ohio, and as his first duty is to his family, he shall go there. He is afraid for his life. He is very much alarmed at the guerilla organization on both sides, fearing a general civil war [illegible] tion of the Union. Poor, weak man! One word from him would have saved him his apprehensions, and probably the country the evils and horrors of a fraternal war.

Yesterday a company of U. S. dragoons went down to Ossawattamie to disperse the Company there organized.

The Locompton Union, a pro-slavery paper, has a report that 150 Missourians had come into the neighborhood of Ossawattamie, and a battle was feared. Shannon has called upon Col. Sumner for two more companies of troops. Shannon declines calling Sumner into the field to take charge of the military operations, by which both parties would be protected, and a police force, in detached parties, stationed throughout the Territory for the preservation of peace; but calls out companies under the control of the Marshal and Sheriff.

On the receipt of the report from Ossawattamie yesterday, Shannon immediately ordered the prisoners in Locompton removed to the camp of the U. S. troops for protection. Locompton is about entirely deserted. A gloomy foreboding of the awful retribution which may result from the exasperation of the Free State men of the country, seems to have settled down upon them, from Shannon up to the highest private, and the Locompton Union, in fear and trembling anticipation of suffering the fate of our presses, cries out in agony, with emphasis: "We have done what we have done, and will do no more if let alone." The italics are his own. Well may he tremble, for I discern the hand-writing on the wall. However much I may disapprove of the means contemplated, I am satisfied that the fate of the Babylonian King and empire is to be almost literally visited upon the Slave power and its officials here.

Sheriff Jones said in the streets of this town, after the destruction, that that was the happiest day of his life, and he was then willing to die.—It is said he intends to resign, or has already resigned his office. He has had his revenge upon the "d—d Abolitionists."

While G. W. Brown was sitting at a window yesterday, conversing with the Lieutenant in command of the guard, a ball was fired from the woods near by, and struck the side of the window. Whether it was intentionally fired or not is not known.

It is rather a singular coincidence that among the four prisoners there under arrest for treason, three of them are named "George Washington," viz: G. W. Brown, G. W. Deitzler and G. W. Smith. Has the name, or have the men fallen upon evil times? Which, if either, is disgraced? I think neither.

On Sunday last the posse of the Marshal and Sheriff—800 men according to the Locompton Union—was paid for their services, 22 days, at $1,00 per day each, making the snug little sum of $17,600, besides rations, for tearing down the best Hotel west of St. Louis, and furnished, as I heard Mr. Oliver of the Kansas Committee himself say, equal to any hotel in that city, opened to the public on the day of its destruction, with a public dinner, at which the Marshal and his posse of eight, who first entered the town, were invited guests; and throwing the printing presses into the river, the liberty of which is guaranteed by the Constitution of the U. S., the driving out of the women and children, and the sacking and plundering of the town. For this service the people of Wisconsin will have to assist in paying. How do they like it? Let them reply in November. L.

Public Meeting at the Court House, to make Arrangements for the Celebration of the Approaching National Anniversary.

Pursuant to a public notice a meeting of the citizens of Milwaukee assembled at the Court House to make arrangements for the celebration of the 4th of July.

Hon. E. O'NEIL called the meeting to order, and on motion of A. BADE, Gen. S. B. Grant was called to the Chair, and J. R. SHARPSTEIN appointed Secretary.

The Chair explained the object of the meeting.

Hon. A. MCARTHUR made some remarks on the nature of the call, and inquired in relation to the character of the proposed celebration.

Hon. E. O'NEIL explained that it had been resolved by the officers of the Battalion to have a military display on that day, and that they hoped the citizens would generally come forward and join in making appropriate arrangements.

Hon. A. MCARTHUR was called upon to make remarks in relation to the propriety of celebrating the approaching anniversary, and suggested that a Committee of Arrangements should be appointed to report at once, if practicable, and, if not, as early as possible. He concluded by moving the appointment of a Committee of Arrangements. Adopted.

The Chair appointed:

Chairman—Gov. MCARTHUR.
Military—Major Nunemacher, Maj. Ladue, Capts. O'Neil, Liebhaber, King, Brosius, Baast, Knobelsdorf, Al. Noll, Adj. Bade.
Firemen—Jno. C. Goodrich, Peter Van Vechten, Dan. Shultz, A. J. Langworthy, T. H. Eviston, Caleb Harrison, Thos. Bohan, J. O. Starkweather, Peter Weber.
Turn Verein—George Dier, N. Waggoner, S. Weagely.
Pius Society—M. Hoffman.
Hibernian—David Wall.
Co. Officers—S. S. Conover, G. M. Fitzgerald.
Judiciary—L. Hubbell, C. Jenkins.
Sons of Liberty—F. C. Krone.
Herman Society—F. A. Luning.
Herrigarian—Christian Dick.
Masons—H. L. Palmer, H. Schwarting.
Odd Fellows—John B. Smith.
Civilians—J. R. Sharpstein, J. H. Brownson, D. Corson, C. Wall, J. Cummings, J. Jennings, J. Hube, J. Hadley, D. C. Reed, H. Haertell, T. F. O'Brien, J. White, A. H. Johnson, S. Taylor, J. Humphrey, J. Rosebee, F. Keuhn.

On motion, the committee was instructed to report to an adjourned meeting, to be held on Saturday evening, the 7th inst., at 7½ o'clock, P. M., to which time the meeting adjourned, after requesting the city papers to publish the proceedings of the meeting.

S. B. GRANT, Chairman.
J. R. SHARPSTEIN, Secretary.

THE SLANDER UPON COL. LANE.—The News sneaks out from its mean slander upon Col. LANE, by saying:

Gen. Taylor's report does not change the state of the matter in the least. There is no doubt but what some portion of the running regiment returned and fought gallantly and would have done so throughout, had it been commanded by competent officers.

The News' ingenuity is equal to its malice.—The "running regiment" at Buena Vista was Col. Bowles'—the Second Indiana—not Col. Lane's which was the third.

LUMBER.—The river in the vicinity of Peaslee and Webster's Sawmill is literally bridged with logs for the distance of nearly half a mile, besides a large number above the bridge. These logs are to be manufactured into lumber by our mills, during the present season, and it is estimated that material is on hand for the manufacture of a half a million feet of the best quality of lumber. The facilities for sawing are equal to the task, and wet quadities will be used here during the summer.—Watertown Chronicle.

WISCONSIN STATE TELEGRAPH CO.—At an election held at Kenosha, on Monday, June 23d, the following gentlemen were chosen officers for the ensuing year:

Directors.—C. C. Sholes.
Secretary. } J. Murray.
Treasurer. }
Superintendent.—J. S. Draper.

By the above, it will be seen that our accomodating operator, Joseph Murray, Esq., has been elected Secretary and Treasurer. The selection was a wise one, and the trust could not be confided to more careful hands.—Madison Democrat.

OUR RAILROAD.—The Columbus Reporter says that the line of the Watertown Railroad was run on Wednesday last from that place to the Ohio House, viz. Fall River. This is the route the road will run, being straight and easy of grading. It is now ascertained that the M. & W. R. R. is at least a twelve miles shorter route from Portage city than the La Crosse line—which is considered an important difference among railroad men.—Watertown Chronicle.

The Great Indignation Meeting in New York.

Our New York exchanges agree in characterizing the meeting last Friday night at the Tabernacle as the most important gathering, in point of numbers not so much as in the quality of the men, ever convened in the city. The Tribune says:

[illegible]anaticism had no voice in its inception, nor any political party claim special merit in its proceedings or its influence. It originated among the moderate men—the conservative merchants, manufacturers, millionaires and mechanics of this metropolis. Men who have for many years held aloof from all public movements, save those of a charitable or philanthropic character, came forward last night spontaneously to rebuke the late unparallelled outrage upon constitutional freedom of speech. Although the call for the meeting was made but one day before the time appointed for it to take place, the grievance had sunk too deep in the public mind to need a longer notification. So general was the indignation, and so hot the desire to give it utterance, that at 6½ P. M., on the opening of the doors of the Tabernacle, the people began to flock into it in crowds, and before the hour announced for the meeting, every seat and standing place in the building was filled to their utmost capacity.—Never before did that old building present so remarkable, so imposing a spectacle. Not less than 5,000 persons were present; while nearly as many more, who could not obtain admission, held a mass meeting outside. From floor to rafters; all around, before, behind, above, below, on every side, rose pile on pile of human faces—earnest, intelligent, indignant faces—from the base of the crowded platform, row after row, until the topmost circle touched the very ceiling.

And the conservative old Courier & Enquirer thus describes the scene:

The meeting had not the slightest political taint of any kind; and a man ignorant of its purpose, if placed in the midst of it, could not have mistaken it for a political gathering. Its officers, leaders, and speakers were men, who unfortunately for our country, our State and our city, keep aloof from politics; and they but represented a class fortunately so numerous that its mere existence goes far to save us from the evil consequences of its inertness in the general warfare.

The spirit which animated this great and peculiar assemblage was that of deep indignation and stern determination. There was no vapouring, none even of loose denunciation which might be pardoned on such an occasion, but that the heart of every man was full, was plain enough when the name of Charles Sumner was first heard in the preamble to the resolutions.—With one voice the vast throng broke into cheers, that were taken up again and again, and prolonged with a spirit that seemed as if it would never flag.

And the New York Mirror adds:

The Sumner meeting was the voice of New York—the commercial centre and heart of the Union—speaking in thunder tones its abhorrence of the ruffian who invaded the sanctity of the Senate of the nation, its sympathy for the Senator clubbed down and well nigh murdered while sitting in his official seat, its sense of the outrage, not as alone committed upon Charles Sumner, but as committed against the rights, privileges and dignity of the whole people, and declaring that the freedom of speech shall be preserved, as the palladium of our liberties, at any and every hazard.

Milwaukee & Beloit Railroad.

The following, from the Rockford, Illinois, Journal, shows the state of feeling existing in that quarter relative to a railroad connection with this city, and should stimulate our people to renewed and steady exertion for the completion of the Milwaukee & Beloit Railroad and its extensions:

MILWAUKEE AND ROCKFORD R. R.

Milwaukee—East Troy—Troy—Delavan—Rockford—New Milford—Thence to Byron—Oregon—Grand de Tour—Dixon or Lucelle—Lane—Mendota.

There! Is not that a grand chain? Would not a road with such a string of connections be a road as a road? Yes—surely yes. Then why not go ahead and build it? Can't the thing be done? Ay, "like a book," you answer, and answer truly. That's so.

Well the thing is being did. Milwaukee is on the way under whip and spur, and we opine that she will spur over the line, and drive her iron steed right straight ahead until she brings up here at the city of Rockford, in the fertile valley of Rock River. And then, "all aboard" for Milwaukee. We will send them on coal from the South, our produce and lots of passengers Eastward bound, or to trade in their city—and they will send us down lumber, store goods, freight from the East and passengers in return. That will be fair reciprocity, and both will be the gainers.

Milwaukee has all the elements, in possession or prospect, of a great commercial city, and as such will be able to offer even superior inducements to Chicago for wholesaleing goods, and as a shipping point. It is in the direct line of communication between us and the East, by way of the lakes, or by the new route from Grand Haven, opposite Milwaukee, to Detroit. While Milwaukee has these advantages, Rockford has all the elements of a manufacturing city. Her water power is unsurpassed in the West, and she has already taken position as the leading manufacturing place in Illinois or the Northwest.—With the traffic which would inevitably spring up between Milwaukee and Rockford by the construction of this road, and with the other prominent points on the line as above named, the lumber and coal to transport for a large section of country, there can be no question the road would be one of the best paying ones in the West.—And it seems to us if the capitalists of Milwaukee and those of our own city fairly understood the importance and magnitude of the trade which would flow over the road, and their own interests, the arrangements for its construction would be perfected and the road commenced inside of thirty days.

The Conventions.

A large number were in attendance in the Convention at Madison yesterday. The delegations were not full, small counties not being represented, but considering the season of the year there was a larger number present than the most hopeful expected, and the outsiders far outnumbered the delegates.

The proceedings of the delegates were spirited and harmonious, and the best feeling prevailed. The Convention thoroughly purged itself of all affinity with Know Nothingism, and went as far in that direction as the most decided anti-Know Nothing could desire. The appointments of delegates and committees, as a whole, gave general satisfaction.

The resolutions took high anti-slavery ground, and present Seward, Chase and Sumner as the men, either of whom Wisconsin would delight to honor. Not a whisper for Fremont or any half way man, but the overwhelming voice has given a strong anti-slavery platform. Now place a strong man on it and we can give him the vote of this State. We shall speak further of the resolutions when we receive them.

The proceedings of the Mass Convention will be found in our columns. The friends of the Mass Convention would have preferred to send five delegates to Philadelphia, in accordance with the suggestions of the National Committee, but the friends of the delegate Convention thought it inexpedient. So far as we know the friends of the Mass Convention were satisfied with the decided action of the delegate Convention, both as respects the platform and candidates, and we trust that all the friends of Freedom in this State will henceforth act together as a unit.—Free Democrat.

CORRECTION AND EXPLANATION.—Several of the papers in this section of the State have very innocently fallen into a mistake as to the principalship of the preparatory Department of Carroll College, at Waukesha.

Mr. Wenzel, of Wauwatosa Academy, did receive the appointment to the post referred to, and while under engagements the notice of his appointment appeared very appropriately in the Journal of Education; from which, in all probability, it was copied into other papers. But previous to entering on the duties of his appointment, unforeseen circumstances rendered it necessary to modify some of the arrangements for the instruction in the institution, and with the concurrence of Mr. Wenzel, and in a manner highly creditable to him, Rev. Mr. Rinker, who is now engaged in that department, was subsequently appointed.

This correction and explanation is due to Mr. Wenzel and Mr. Rinker, as well as the Institution itself.

J. A. SAVAGE,
President of Carroll College.

STEALING BY THE "POSSE."—A Lawrence correspondent of the Cincinnati Commercial, writing on the 22d ult., says:

"No species of property which the invaders could appropriate, was left untouched. I estimate that one hundred horses were taken from their owners in this county alone. One clergyman lost one horse, another two, and a gentleman sick of consumption, whose physician had directed him to take daily exercise on horseback, was deprived of pony, saddle and bridle. Cattle were driven away and slaughtered in large numbers. Fences were torn down, houses were broken into, wagons were examined and citizens were seized, detained from their families, searched, subjected to every indignity, and finally dismissed without accusation, without trial, and without apology."

APPLES OF GOLD.—We are proud of such notices as the following from our cotemporaries, and try to deserve them. The Transcript hits the nail on the head in its suggestion to the press in other places. There are often articles in them in relation to local matters, containing information which we cannot give our readers, owing to the want of time to re-write and condense them:

If any portion of the State fails to be represented in the Milwaukee papers, it is the fault of its local press, no doubt, in not presenting its items in such a manner as to enable the hurried editors of the daily papers to reproduce them properly without more labor of clipping, rewriting and pasting than they have time to do. These papers are doing a great service to the State at large, and should be supported liberally by the people. As to the Milwaukee Sentinel, whatever views may be entertained of its political principles, (Republicanism) we believe it has the reputation of being the best State and general newspaper in Wisconsin, and as such take pleasure in recommending it.—Prescott Transcript.

THE MILWAUKEE SENTINEL, as a political, commercial, business newspaper, we think has no superior in the State; and as we get the latest news in it, we perhaps copy more from it more often than from any other. We doubt not the talent and enterprise of the publishers are securing a liberal support.—Newport Mirror.

☞ We republish, to-day, the resolutions proposed to our Corn Exchange by a Calumet county farmer, in justice to him, as there was a material omission in it yesterday:

STOCKBRIDGE, June 2, 1856.

Messrs. Editors:—In the Sentinel, of May 28th, I saw, and was much pleased with, resolutions adopted by the members of the "Milwaukee Corn Exchange," at their meeting on the 23d inst., but, from a very little experience in the "grain trade," I think that meeting overlooked one very important class of dealers in grain, who require as good watching as the farmers. I allude to the millers, and I think the following resolution, which is suggested by a transaction which actually occurred not more than 1,000 miles south of the city of Green Bay, last winter, should be added to those published in the Sentinel:

Resolved, That we pledge our utmost endeavors to expose those millers who are in the habit of filling the bottom of the sack with flour of an inferior quality, or middlings, when the wheat that is furnished by the farmer to make the flour is all of the same quality, and that of the first quality of our club wheat.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, JUNE 5.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

Edward Cary, drunk and disorderly, fined $5; Robert Helm, disorderly, fined $5; Henry Fidlen, fast driving on bridge, fined $2; John Jenkins, charged with disorderly conduct, case continued by consent to June 12th at 10 A.M.

PARODI'S CONCERT.—The agent for Mad'lle. Rakemann and her party arrived last evening, and the arrangements are being perfected for the (only) Concert, which will be given on Monday evening. Seats may be secured at Hamilton's after to day.

The full programme will be given to-morrow. Besides the various pieces which we recall hear from the familiar voices of PARODI and Madame STRAKOSCH, and the exquisite two feet of STRAKOSCH, Parodi will sing the National Anthem, the "Star Spangled Banner," concerning her rendering of which the Philadelphia North American says:

Mlle PARODI revealed the full development of her gifts for her last night. We have admired her great artistic powers, her pure style, her deep mellow voice, but when she sang the Star Spangled Banner, she appealed to our nearest sympathies. Patriotism, which prosperity makes to slumber in our hearts, was aroused, fresh and vigorous, as we listened to her fine rendering of the theme.—We would hear no such strange music more.

STREET COMMISSIONERS' ORDERS.—In the Seventh Ward, cobble stone gutters are ordered to be built in 20 days, everywhere, where they are not built.

[As a matter of course, does this order indicate that the gutters are the crossings are to be paved? or are the mudholes to be left under gear or more?]

The sidewalks, alleys, and streets are to be regularly cleaned every Friday morning, and the rubbish deposited in heaps to be removed.

THE CHRISTYS' MINSTRELS.—Concert Hall was crowded, last evening, to hear the far-famed Christy's Minstrels. These admirable performers eclipsed their former efforts here, introducing many new and amusing burlesques, and giving much good music. The audience applaued frequently and heartily. The Christys' give another entertainment to-night, with change of programme. Of course, there will be a crowd.

STOPS THE WAY.—A large two story building was moved out into East Water Street yesterday, between Michigan and Wisconsin sts., and effectually blocks that thoroughfare. How long it will take to get it out of the way at the rate of progress made yesterday, remains to be seen.

BEAUTIFUL FARM FOR SALE.—Notice the advertisement of a farm in Marquette Co for sale. The Green Lake region, in which it is situated, is one of the most beautiful and productive in the State, and he who purchases this farm will find himself the owner of a piece of property which any good farmer might well envy. It was purchased by the owner of the government, and is sold only because he wishes to retire from farming.

THE CUSTOM HOUSE.—We learn that the papers have arrived from the Department, necessary to the progress of this work, and Mr. H. W. GOSSELIN is appointed the financial agent of the Government for the purpose. Good progress is being made in clearing and excavating the ground for the building. The work of removing the house of Engine Co. No. 1 has commenced. We trust that the Council will act promptly in giving this fine company another house.

DEMOLITION.—The work of tearing down the engine house of Milwaukee Fire Company No. 1 was commenced yesterday. The room which it occupies is needed for the new Government buildings. Until a new house is built, the apparatus of No. 1 will be kept in the Hose Company House, on Main Street.

PERSONAL.—Our Representative at Washington, Mr. D. WELLS, Jr., availing himself of the intermission in the regular business of Congress, is now on a visit home. We hope that he will be back in time to vote for the expulsion of the ruffian BROOKS from the seat which he disgraces.

LEFFINGWELL'S BENEFIT TO-NIGHT.—Mr. LEFFINGWELL, an actor of decided talent and remarkable versatility, and a very good favorite with all who patronize the Theatre, takes a benefit to-night, and offers a most attractive bill. He deserves and we hope will have, a bumper.

Four pieces will be presented to-night—the "Lady and the Devil"—"School for Scandal"—"Widow's Victim," and the 1st act of "Robert Macaire."

THE BEE HIVE.—In addition to the many other handsome things to be seen at the Bee Hive, is a stained glass circular window just brought from New York and placed in the east end of the store, where it sheds a rainbow light upon a number of "dainties," adorned with choice flowers, mantillas, &c., so that the ladies can see just how they would appear in such dresses.

FOURTH OF JULY.—Active preparations are on foot for celebrating the approaching Anniversary of American Independence in a style worthy of the day and creditable to our city. All the Military and Fire Companies and many of the Civic Associations will take part in the pageant.

CORRECTION.—MR. U. B. SMITH requests us to say that the board, as we termed it, alleged to have been stolen from him, by two farmers from Racine County, was a butter-tray, and that he had sworn to it was worth $1 50, and that he had nothing to do with the charges made by the constable.

PITCHING INTO THE POLICE.—The Banner and Volksfreund of yesterday contains an article pitching into the police for arresting drunken men. If we should happen to get arrested for being a little bucked we suppose we should have to follow suit and pitch into the Police a day or two afterwards.

FOR OSWEGO AND ODDENSBURG.—The propeller Young America leaves this morning for the above ports. For passage apply to J. GRIFFIN, Huron Street, near Main.

PIANOS.—Attention is invited to the advertisement of T. H. MASON, who offers his assortment of warranted pianos at low prices, at his establishment on Wisconsin Street.

GROCERIES AND PROVISIONS.—Persons who find time to eat in these busy days will do well to call upon Messrs. CHAPIN & GREGORY, at their convenient and well filled stores on Spring Street. See advertisement.

FOR COLLINGWOOD.—The favorite steamer Keystone State leaves our port for Collingwood to-morrow morning. The trip, at this season of the year, is a delightful one. L. D JACOBS, Huron Street, is the agent.

LATE PAPERS.—We are indebted to T. B. MASON for Cincinnati papers of the 23d inst., in advance of the mail.

PICTURES.—E. C. ARNOLD advertises a fine assortment of engravings and paintings in this morning's paper. Mr. ARNOLD pays great attention to this branch of his business.

SECOND WARD PARK.—The vote day before yesterday in the 2d Ward, was nearly unanimous in favor of improving their public park.

☞ CRAMPTON offers numerous bargains to-day.

AN ORDINANCE

TO LICENSE DOGS, PASSED JULY 18, 1846.

Be it ordained by the Mayor and Aldermen of the City of Milwaukee, in Common Council assembled:

Sec. 1. Persons complying with the provisions of this section shall not be liable to the penalties named in the first section of this ordinance.

CALEB WALL.

City Land Office.

TWO HUNDRED desirable and valuable lots to be sold in the City of Milwaukee. On Wednesday morning, June 18, at 10 o'clock, I will sell to the highest bidder, on the easiest terms property has ever been sold, all of that desirable plat of Murray's Addition, containing two hundred lots, fronting on Walker's Point and Jones on the Lockwood and Glidden's Addition, and joins also the city property which is to be appropriated for a City Park. The lots are all very beautiful, high, and covered over with elm and maple groves; they are on one side the Light House. The Plank Avenues are to run through them, in fact it is the most desirable property to make investments of any property that I have ever sold. The lots are of a good size, forty feet front, one hundred and twenty feet deep, with alley's in the rear. You must all agree with me when I say that the above land has the pre-eminence over all other wards for beautiful and private residences. The lots in Murray's Addition will command as high price in five years as lots do now in Astor, Kerbish, Cass and Van Rensselaer. Here is no reason why they should not; our city is bound to go ahead, she is bound to have a population of one hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants, and the most valuable property which are now going up in Lockwood & Glidden's addition, with the various Parks around, certainly must make lots in Murray's Addition desirable and valuable. At all events there is no great risk to run. Terms of sale are very easy. The lots will rell low, affording an opportunity to all classes to secure them a home, and when once a home is obtained it never can be taken away, no matter what misfortunes may occur; for our laws are made to protect the widows and orphans, and the unfortunate.—Terms of sale will be one fifth down, balance in 1, 2, 3 and 4 years with 7 per cent interest. The best title in the world. Mr. Murray gets it from Government. I will have one thousand Lithographic maps of said Addition in a few days, which I will give to all who wish one, if they will call at my store

VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, FRIDAY MORNING, JUNE 6, 1856. NEW SERIES.

THE MID-WATCH.

BY BAYARD TAYLOR.

I pace the deck in the dead of night,
When the moon and starlight fall,
And the cordage creaks to the lazy swells,
And heavily flops the sail.
On the darkness glimmers the binnacle-lamp,
With feeble and lonely spell;
No sound but the passing sentry's tramp,
Or his his measured cry: "All's well!"

To-and-fro, with accustomed step,
I walk in the night alone,
And I think of the thousand watches kept
In the years forever flown;
Of the friends in whose manly fellowship
I labored long ago,
Till death relieved their watch on earth,
And they went to rest below.

I think of the gallant ones who died
When our broadsides shook the sea,
And sorrow for them subdued the pride
Of our cheers for victory;
Of those who fell in the fevered lands,
Or sank in the whelming wave,
Whose corpses waste on the barren sands,
Or float in the fathomless grave.

And the looks revive that were faint and dim,
In the shadows of the years,
And I read them o'er till my eyelids swim
With the strange delight of tears:
They people the dark with their pallid brows,
As they silently throng around,
And the sea its phosphor radiance throws,
On the faces of the drowned.

So many a noble heart is cold
That shared my duties then:
I have looked full oft in the face of Death,
But he comes to better men;
And let him come in his chosen time,
Some friend will think of me,
And I shall live in the lonely hours
Of his midnight watch at sea.

☞With great and sincere regret we state that the disease which afflicts the Empress of the French is severe and serious. It is a terrible malady in the limbs, and we lament to say that this illness is of a nature that may demand years to undermine it.—London Morning Herald.

F. M. LANE'S
PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT.
Important Improvement in Painting!

A PERMANENT GLOSS PAINT for interior work has long been a desideratum. All paints prepared from Linseed Oil, will rapidly turn from the light cut and most opposite tints to the yellow color of the oil itself; the change being the more rapid as the paint is exposed from the full light of day.

The subscriber, after a sufficiently long experience in its use, can recommend it as the only Gloss Paint in which this important defect is effectually remedied. This beautiful paint can be applied of any color, from the purest white, resembling enamel or porcelain, to all the different varieties of tints, suitable for private dwellings, Churches, Hotels, &c., which in brilliancy and richness of surface it surpasses all other paints; it possesses superior advantages in retaining permanently even the most delicate colors with which it is combined.

Also, Plain and Ornamental Painting, decoration of Private Dwellings, Churches, &c., Sign and Fancy Painting.

SARSAPARILLA,

For purifying the Blood, removing all diseases arising from excess of Mercury, exposure and imprudence of life, chronic constitutional disease, arising from an impure state of the blood, and the only reliable and effectual known remedy for the cure of Scrofula, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ulcerations of the Throat and Legs, Pains and Swellings of the Bones, Tetter, Pimples on the Face, and all Scaly Eruptions of the Skin.

It is gratifying to the proprietor of these medicines to be able to state that it is now nearly three years since they were first introduced, during which time they have been extensively used in various parts of the United States, and have given to patient and practitioner the highest degree of satisfaction in the various cases in which they have been employed; whether in form, privately, hospital, or private practice, they have invariably given the most decided and unequivocal satisfaction, and produced the most salutary and beneficial effects. Numerous letters have been received, from the most distinguished physicians in the country, and from the professors of several medical colleges, recommending in the highest terms the value of these medicines and their superiority over all other preparations of such complaints as the proprietor recommends. Numerous preparations of Sarsaparilla and of Buchu, and various modes of preparing them have been given, all of which of course fall short of its original claims. You can recommend it to the world without the least fear, as my case was one of the worst kind.

Yours, &c.,
DANIEL N. MURPHY.

Prof. Wood:—My hair commenced falling off some three or four years since, and continued to do so until it became quite bald. I tried all the popular medicines of the day, but to no effect. At last I was induced to try your celebrated Hair Restorative, and am happy to say, it did wonders. I have now a fine growth of young hair, and cheerfully recommend its use to all similarly afflicted.

Prof. Wood:—As you are about to prepare and have your recently discovered Hair Restorative, and as you request my opinion of it, I will state that my hair was, a few months ago, very grey; and after using two bottles of your Hair Restorative, I assure you it is entirely restored, since its application all dandruff has disappeared from my head, and I have been troubled with no disagreeable feeling of the scalp. I am satisfied those who use it will not be troubled with grey hair, as it restores it to its original color, recently oiled. I am prepared, therefore, to recommend its use to all who are desirous of having a beautiful head of hair. I am, Sir, yours, &c.,
H. L. STEWART.
